MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR.

ONE dose is sufficient to convince the most scrupulous of the invaluable and unailing efficacy of Mulreaddy's Cough Elixir, for the cure of coughs, colds, hoarseness, shortness of breath, asthma, difficulty of breathing, hoarseness, and unpleasant tickling in the throat, night cough, with pain on chest, &c.

The paramount superiority of this Medicine above every other now in use, for the cure of the above complaints, only requires to be known to prove the passport to its being, ere long, universally made use of for the cure of every description of Pulmonary affection.

To those who are unacquainted with the invaluable properties of Mulreaddy's Cough Elixir, the following letters will exhibit its efficacy:—

Manchester, Jan. 2nd, 1835.

DEAR SIR,—The Cough Medicine you sent me is certainly a most surprising remedy,—six days ago I was unable to breathe, unless with great difficulty, attended with much coughing, which always kept my soft palate relaxed, and in a state of irritation, and the more I coughed the worse it was, and it is its own cure, produced a constant excitement of coughing. I am now about, to the wonder of my friends and neighbours, entirely free from cough. One small phial of your inestimable medicine, ten years back, would have saved me not less than 3,000l. in medical fees, but it would have done more—it would have saved my having had to swallow, from time to time, upwards of a hoghead of their nauseous, and, as they all proved, useless drugs. The agreeable flavour of the medicine is a great recommendation: I think you ought to put it up and sell it to the public, and if any one should doubt its efficacy, refer them to me. I shall have the pleasure of being with you in a few days, when I shall press on your consideration the propriety of making it up for sale, it would prove an enormous fortune to your grandchildren. If you make up your mind to do so, as I am what the world style an invalid, you may assist me in your service in any way that you think would be useful. But I should advise you to place the management in the hands of one of the great medicine houses in London.—Hannay's, in Oxford-street, are being advertised in all the papers here as wholesale agents for Rampton's Corn Solvent—which, by the bye, my girls all say is really a cure,—and many other medicines. I should say this would be a very good house, Oxford-street being one of the most public situations in London.

A NEW DISCOVERY.—PATENT PLATINA WOVE WIG. The Patent Platina Wove is added to the Metallic Spring, and so connected as to prevent the possibility of shrinking or becoming misshapen. The great inconvenience attending Wigs was in some degree lessened with the Metallic Spring, but is now entirely obviated by the introduction of the Platina Wove. For natural appearance they cannot be equalled, being easy, light, and ventilating, defying detection from the Natural Head of Hair. Price 12. 10s., being actually no more than half usually charged by other makers for an inferior article. Method of measuring—circle of the head. From temple to temple, round the rise of the back of the head. From the forehead to the poll. From the top of one ear over the head to the other.

N.B. Clerical and Legal Wigs, requiring no Powder, on the New Light Patent Platina principle, at 3s. 3s., usually charged 6l. 6s.

E. ROBINSON, 21, Abingde, and at 59, Carey-street, Lincoln's Inn.

FOR COUGHS, ASTHMAS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

PAUL'S AMERICAN BALSAM gives immediate ease to the Asthmatic, and is a speedy cure for all long-standing Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, Hoarseness, Shortness of Breath, &c. Some have been restored to health after every other means had failed, when their constitutions were sinking under the direful effects of Consumption; others have been cured of an incessant dreadful Cough, when all around them thought that every fit of coughing would be their last.

EXTRAORDINARY TESTIMONIAL

From Dr. Turner, late Lecturer at the London University.

"Sir,—I beg to inform you that I have seen your American Balsam given in several cases of Consumption, and effectually curing the complaint; and I consider it to be one of the best medicines for coughs, colds, asthma, hoarseness, shortness of breath, &c."

"I remain yours, &c."

Prepared and sold by the Proprietor, James Paul, Chemist, &c., 255, late 153, Blackfriars-road, (facing Christ Church,) in Boxes 1s. 1/4, 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each; and by all Medicine Vendors in Town and Country.

FOR HEALTH, CLEAR SKIN, and LONG LIFE.

DR. BULL'S Family Approved Pills, for both Sexes, a most effectual Remedy for Indigestion, Bile, Giddiness of the Head, Piles, Gout, &c. acting mildly but effectually, without gripping the inside. It destroys worms, cleanses the system, and eradicates all external eruptions, and restores to the skin a healthy, and blooming appearance. For Females these Pills are truly wonderful; they regulate the Bowels, improve the Digestion, and ward off Disease.

In Boxes, 1s. 1/4, 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each.

OBSERVE CAUTION.

Unprincipled Medicine Vendors supply spurious Medicines for these, particularly in Dr. Bull's Pills; the Genuine are prepared solely by James Paul, and have his name on the stamp.

SIGHT RESTORED.—Nervous Head-ache cured.—Under the special Patronage of his late Majesty, the ROYAL HIGHNESS the DUCHESS of KENT, and the LORDS of the TREASURY.—Oculist and Medical Practitioner of the first celebrity have recommended its universal adoption, as being the most healthy, restorative, as well to prevent calamities to which those delicate organs, the eyes and ears, are too often subjected. Copies of letters and lists of cures, with addresses, given gratis, of Gutta Serena, Cataract, Ophthalmia, Weakness, and Inflammation of the Eyes, and Nervous Head-ache. Indeed, Royalty, Nobility, the Press, and the gigantic balance of all things, public opinion, have culogised it, and placed the efficacy of GRIMSTONE'S EYE BRUFF beyond suspicion.

Robson, cured of Indigestion and Diarrhoea of Sight, 19, Bell-street, Edgeware-road.—Mrs. Guppy, No. 36, Nelson-square, Blackfriars-road, and Corn-street, Bristol, cured of Ophthalmia.—Miss Mary Hodson, Market-place, Walsley, Boska, cured of Ophthalmia; witnesses to her cure, Mr. John Hodson, her father, and R. SILK DYEING ESTABLISHMENT. 7. (Late 4.) OLDHAM-STREET, MANCHESTER.—ALEXANDER BRAKE, Silk Dyer, respectfully returns his acknowledgments to the inhabitants of Manchester and its vicinity, as well as to many respectable Families in various parts of the kingdom, for the very liberal and increasing patronage he continues to receive, and assures them that orders entrusted to him shall be executed under his own inspection, in a manner calculated to give general satisfaction.—Ladies' silk dresses of every description, silks, satins, velvets, and China crapes, re-dyed all the various colours in use, and finished equal to any done in London or Edinburgh; silk veils and net shawls re-dyed and finished in a superior way; printed Canton crapes shawls, London and Edinburgh shawls, cleaned so as to preserve the colours, and carefully finished.—Bed and window furnishings, sofa and chair covers, cleaned, and dyed in a superior manner. Green, blue, and black shawls, silks cleaned, dyed, and finished; silk and Tulle shawl middles re-dyed and bordered. Gentlemen's cloth cleaned and renovated; carpets and rugs cleaned.

A. B., on account of years and declining health, would feel disposed TO LET the above PREMISES to a practical dyer, fully acquainted with the business in all its branches. The dwelling-house connected with the premises is roomy and convenient, and suitable for a respectable family. The premises also contain two warehouses, in which are stored silk & woollen, in separate rooms; also a cutting room and a press room, distinct from each other; and a stove room unconnected with the house or warehouses, but contiguous to each. The yard in which the dyeing is carried on is spacious, and shaded over at a height of ten yards or upwards from the ground. The business has for several years past employed from fourteen to eighteen persons, and has been progressively increasing. The situation is one of the best in Manchester, being in the very centre of the town, where its principal trade is carried on; so that, taking into account the growing prosperity of this manufacturing district, and the facilities for business which these premises hold out, there cannot be met with a better situation for the dyeing trade out of London.—The above establishment has been fitted up at considerable
